CREATIVE PROJECTS

Three 20-Minute Bursts

Do you remember how fun relay races were when you were a kid? Do you want a friendly competition with your kids while you are at home. Bring that sense of ready-set-go with an art project that you take on in three 20-minute bursts.

- +First, spend no more than a minute (!) picking your subject, putting in your horizon line and massing in big shapes and roughly marking shadow shapes. Be loose, be gestural, be experimental. And set a timer for 20 minutes!
- +Second burst, Color! Bridge your forms from dark to light (or light to dark if that works better for your composition!) and bring in texture and marks that give your objects visual interest-make it your own!
- + Third and final burst, You've only got 20 minutes, but first put your art implement or tool down. Step away. What do you want this art piece to have more of? Less of? What do you want to feel when you look at it? Keep that in mind and then take the rest of the time making it happen.
